Letter of Appreciation

Dear Sir,

Amid rising concerns over the burning of stubble by the farmers, The Department of Science, Guru Nanak College Budhlada organised an awareness program on 'crop residue management for farmers at Biro Ke Kalan on 28 Sept. 2021. In this program awareness was spread regarding schemes/initiatives being taken up by the department of agriculture and many progressive farmers of the state. Dr Hardeep Singh called on the farmers to shun paddy straw burning, as it resulted in a number of problems related to ecology, soil and human health. He asked the farmers to come up with new ideas to manage the crops residue. Miss Simranpreet Kaur of the department said that the conservation of natural resources is a moral, social and religious duty of our all. Various campaigns were being run and steps were being taken to stop stubble burning at the state and local level and the programme was part of the same.

Thanks a lot to the entire team of Guru Nanak College, Budhlada for organising an awareness program on stubble burning.
